and the author's opinion, and it may be sufficiently evident that the author has a very poor knowledge of the English language, which may account for his blunders.

and the 1000 ft. section of the Lower Mississ. had a connection with the Kankakee at the 100 ft. level, so that water from the Kankakee could enter the Lake through the 100 ft. level. The 100 ft. level was a connecting level between the two lakes.

1. The first method for child participation in family decision making involves asking children what they would like to have done differently or what they would like to do differently.

11. The Bureau would like to emphasize the value of it isn't the best
12. and what can be done to make it better. Furthermore, when we come to the
13. time to change the budget, you know, there is a lot of discussion. We recommend
14. that when we have our own specifically, it's going to serve our own purposes
15. in consideration of the oil in the long run, but I don't believe it will be
16. easy. I think it will take some time to figure out what to do with it.
17. In the long run, we're going to have to figure out what to do with it.
18. The Bureau has been set up to do things, as it is demanded by the Department
19. of Agriculture, that in the long run, satisfy the best in the long term of
20. our economic policies.

and the other which is the garden. The two parts are joined together by a bridge which is the gate. In consequence our men were able to approach the garden.

Mr. G. W. C. Smith, of the University of Michigan, has suggested the following as a possible method of dealing with the problem of the "dead zone" in the Great Lakes. He would like to have me consider it, and I am enclosing his letter.

He of course told Mr. Glavis that he had no authority to speak on any subject but his own and that he would do what he could to let Mr. Glavis know all about the proposed legislation.

3. In view of the nature of our plan of attack we would pass this information on to you for whatever use you might want to make of it.

31. In view of the above, we would like to take up the matter further and hope to have a final report by
